PUBLIC LECTURE
organized by
THE CENTRE FOR MIDDLE EAST STUDIES

Sunday, 14 September 2014, 1:00 pm
Jindal Guest House
G-5, Anand Niketan, New Delhi.
(Downstairs Guest Room)

“Iran’s Regional Role ”

SPEAKER

Dr. Asif Shuja
Research Fellow
Indian Council of World Affairs, New Delhi

Dr. Asif Shuja is a Research Fellow at the Indian Council of World Affairs (ICWA), New Delhi where he is working as an Iran Analyst in the Middle East Cluster. He also serves as an Iran Expert in the Middle East-Asia Project of the Middle East Institute, Washington, DC. His research expertise includes Domestic Politics and Power Struggle in Iran, US-Iran Nuclear Standoff and India-Iran Relations. Prior to joining ICWA, he was associated with the Centre for Air Power Studies (CAPS), New Delhi where he worked on a Research Project on Iran’s Nuclear Programme. During his stay in CAPS, he was also associated with Nuclear Security Project of the Department of Atomic Energy. He has done his Ph.D. from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. He has edited several books and has authored his forthcoming book, titled “India-Iran Relations: Challenges for India’s Diplomacy.” He regularly participates in India’s Track-2 Diplomacy, writes for Journals and Newspapers and appears on TV for discussions on Middle East issues.

RSVP: Reem Kabbani, Senior Research Associate, JSIA, rkabbani@jgu.edu.in, +91-8930110815