JINDAL SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC POLICY
DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC LECTURE

Monday, 10 August 2015, 2:30 pm – 4:00 pm
T2, 60 Seater Auditorium (Entry from T3)
O.P. Jindal Global University
Sonipat Narela Road, Sonipat-131001, Haryana

“The Emergence of Democracy in Latin America”

SPEAKER

Professor Amiya Kumar Bagchi
Emeritus Professor
Institute of Development Studies Kolkata
Adjunct Professor, Monash University

Amiya Kumar Bagchi has taught and researched in the areas of economics and history since 1958 in Presidency College, Calcutta, Department of Economics, Calcutta University, University of Cambridge, Bristol University, Roskilde University, Denmark, Cornell University, Maison des Sciences de l'Homme, Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta and the Institute of Development Studies Kolkata. He has been awarded honorary doctorates by three universities in India and by Roskilde University. He is currently Emeritus Professor, Institute of Development Studies Kolkata and Adjunct Professor, Monash University, Australia. His books include Private Investment in India 1900-1939 (1972), The Political Economy of Underdevelopment (1982), Public Intervention and Industrial Restructuring in China, India and the Republic of Korea (1987), Capital and Labour Redefined: India and the Third World (2002), Perilous Passage: Mankind and the Global Ascendancy of Capital (2005), and Colonialism and Indian Economy (2010) and a three-volume history of the State Bank of India (1987-1997). He has also edited several books and special issues of journals. His latest edited volume (jointly with Amita Chatterjee) is Marxism With and Beyond Marx (Routledge, 2014). He was the lead consultant for Asia and the Pacific: a story of transformation and resurgence, Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific 1947-2014 (United Nations, 2014).

RSVP: Ms. Suman Dalmia, sdalmia@jgu.edu.in, +91-8396907364

www.jgu.edu.in